When we left for our walk that morning, I never thought that I would be making history. I happened to grab my camera that was _____ off my doorknob by its strap before we left for the woods, and it was a lucky chance! About an hour into our walk, I spied a hummingbird _____ above a large bush with tiny yellow flowers. I took a picture, thinking it was a personal _____, since I usually forget to take my camera. I put my photo on a bird Web site, asking if anyone knew what kind it was. A couple of days later, I got an e-mail saying it was a rare Wolf-Neck Hummingbird and that no one had ever taken a photo of it before! I was able to _____ something no one else had. It just goes to show, it never hurts to be in the right place at the right time!

The Principal's Office

“Ms. Lee will see you now,” the assistant said.
 I swallowed hard and opened the door.
I've really done it, I thought.
 As I stepped in, Ms. Lee looked up
 And took an envelope from her desk.
 “Daniel Birnbaum,” she began.
 “I just think that you ought to know”
 —my heart was pounding in my chest—
 “How proud we all are of your work.”
 Surprised, I saw the envelope read,
 “District Youth Robotics Team.”
 “You made the district team!” she said.
I've really done it! I thought.

Evidence is details and examples from a text that support a writer’s ideas. The student who wrote the paragraph below cited evidence to show how the author of a poem communicated the theme.

Topic sentence	→	The author of “Spelling Bee” uses a first-person narrator to communicate the theme of the poem.
Evidence	→	The narrator is in the final round of a spelling bee. Through the thoughts of the narrator we learn how hard she has worked to prepare for the spelling bee. Between each stanza of the poem, the author has the girl spelling part of the word. At the end of the poem, the author shows the whole word ascendancy spelled out.
Concluding statement	→	The girl’s thoughts and the word she spells in the contest helped me to understand that the theme of the poem is that hard work leads to success.

Write a paragraph about the text you chose. Cite evidence from the text to show how the author uses details to develop the theme. Remember to include details about the characters and their actions. Use pronouns and homophones correctly.

Write a topic sentence: _____

Cite evidence from the text: _____

End with a concluding statement: _____

A. Read the draft model. Use the questions that follow the draft to help you think about what sensory details you can add.

Draft Model

I was nervous.
I waited to hear the election results.
The loudspeaker came on.
I was excited when I heard the principal say my name.

1. What sensory details would better describe the speaker’s nervousness in the first line?
2. What sensory details would more clearly show how the speaker “waited” to hear the election results?
3. What does the loudspeaker sound like to the speaker?
4. What sensory details would better describe the speaker’s excitement in the last line?

B. Now revise the draft by adding sensory details to help readers feel what the narrator is feeling.
